Writing about Fondation Botnar

When writing about Fondation Botnar, the following guidelines must be adhered to. Fondation Botnar should never be abbreviated and should always be spelled correctly with both words capitalised.

Correct use: Fondation Botnar

Incorrect use: Botnar Foundation, FB, Foundation Botnar, Botnar

Logo

Fondation Botnar logo

Use of the Fondation Botnar logo must be in full compliance with the below requirements. Grantees may only use the logo in a referential manner and should not use it as a prominent visual on any materials. If the foundation's logo is used on the internet, the grantee should link the logo to www.fondationbotnar.org. Any materials which use the logo should be submitted to the foundation for approval prior to use, with two weeks (10 working days) for approval.

Primary logo

The pink version of the logo on a white background should be used as a priority and wherever possible. Other versions of the logo, i.e. black and white versions are to be used as alternatives only when the pink version is unsuitable.

Usage guidelines

If Fondation Botnar is the lead partner and other organisations are supporting partners, the logo should be placed top right and the supporting partners' logos should be placed along the bottom of the page of communication materials.

If it is an equal partnership, and in cases where there might be several partners involved, the Fondation Botnar logo should appear in a line across the top or bottom of the page.

To ensure better legibility, the logo must always have spacing surrounding it equal to 75% of the capital B, as shown. When the logo is displayed at small sizes, the text 'fondation' must always be clearly legible.

The logo must never be warped, rotated, or partially used.

Please send questions and approvals for logo use to:
communications@fondationbotnar.org

Materials

No materials are to be produced on behalf of Fondation Botnar without approval.

Communicating Fondation Botnar-support

As detailed in Article 6.1 of the Grant Agreement, if grantees plan to announce Fondation Botnar funding or partnership on websites, materials, articles, please contact communications@fondationbotnar.org to discuss the goals and communications plan; and refer to the 'Contact with media and journalists' section if a press release is planned.

Contact with media and journalists

Local and national

Local and national media requests related to the projects do not need to be approved by Fondation Botnar, however you must always adhere to the defined boilerplates provided. If local media plans to include further or additional details than covered by the boiler plate, then the foundation must be notified.

Top tier/international media

Media and interview requests by top-tier, broadcast or international media outlets should be shared immediately with Fondation Botnar contact persons with a clear plan for spokespeople and responses. This will need to be agreed upon by all parties.

Press releases and announcements

Press releases and announcement which reference to Fondation Botnar must be submitted for review two weeks (10 working days) prior to the release of such materials. Requests for approval to include the Fondation Botnar logo in the press release should be explicit.

Social media

The Fondation Botnar social media channels are as follows:
